Specialty timber auctions

The Forest Products Commission regularly auctions specialty timber to the general public.

Extensive selections of highly prized species from the South West – many salvaged from various land clearing projects (such as mining and road construction) – are offered for sale as logs and slabs.

Auction lots are sized to accommodate small commercial operators, craftspeople and hobbyists who require varying amounts of craftwood.

Are you interested in attending one of our auctions?

Join our email mailing list so we can notify you of future auctions.
